

Area of application

These terms and conditions apply to all bookings/inquiries via the CapCorn Destination Management System (=reservation and inquiry system). The system operator and Tourismusverband St. Veit-Schwarzach (Tourism Association St.Veit-Schwarzach) provide this software to individual tourist accommodation operations free of charge.

Bookings

The binding bookings made with this system are the grounds for a contractual relationship between the guest and the accommodation provider. The system operator and Tourismusverband St. Veit-Schwarzach do not accept any liability for the responses that come from using this system. The terms and conditions for Hotellerie 2006 (AGBH 2006) in the version of November 15, 2006 apply to the contractual relationship between the guest and the accommodation provider. The “binding booking” via the client represents a legally binding offer of the guest to the respective accommodation provider. A binding accommodation contract only comes into being for both sides after reconfirmation by the accommodation provider.

Applicable law

Austrian law solely applies to the contractual relationship between the guest and the accommodation provider. In addition, the terms and conditions for Hotellerie 2006 (AGBH 2006) https://www.hotelverband.at/down/agbh_061115.pdf apply as agreed. The terms and conditions of the respective accommodation provider also apply as a further contractual basis.
